

THE 13TH ANNUAL ROXBURY
INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTS
“ATLETU” (THE ATHLETE)

Running the streets of Rome in 1960, an unknown, barefoot Ethiopian man stunned the world by winning Olympic gold in the marathon. Overnight, Abebe Bikila became a sports legend. Bikila was the first African to win a gold medal and, four years later in Tokyo, the first person in history to win consecutive Olympic gold medals in the marathon.

But his life story only began with Olympic medals. One evening while returning to his home in Addis Ababa after training, fate would present this remarkable champion with his greatest challenge; finding the will to live.
